SI Re appoints Beatrix Dodgson as Chief Underwriting Officer

Zug, 5 October 2026 – SIGNAL IDUNA Reinsurance Ltd (SI Re), the Swiss reinsurer based in Zug, today announced the appointment of Beatrix Dodgson as Chief Underwriting Officer (CUO), effective 1 November 2026. She will report to Dr. Arnold Löw, CEO of SI Re.

Dr. Arnold Löw, CEO of SI Re, said: “We are truly delighted to welcome Beatrix Dodgson to SI Re. She brings more than three decades of experience across the re/insurance value chain, combining deep technical underwriting expertise with strong client and broker relationships. With her impressive track record in leading underwriting teams, steering portfolios and setting underwriting strategy, she is ideally suited to shape our underwriting as we continue to develop our business with discipline and consistency.”

Beatrix Dodgson will join SI Re from Korean Re Switzerland AG, where she served as Chief Underwriting Officer and a member of the Executive Team from September 2024. Previously, she spent more than two decades at Swiss Re, most recently as Desk Head Casualty Treaty Underwriting EMEA Globals and UK, and Portfolio Owner of the EMEA Liability treaty book. Prior to that, she was Key Account Manager for leading global client groups and before that underwrote Casualty treaty business for EMEA Globals, the Middle East, Turkey and India. She joined Swiss Re in Johannesburg in 1997, covering French-speaking Sub-Saharan Africa.

Beatrix Dodgson also worked as a Senior Consultant at KPMG in Zurich. She started her insurance career at CAP Legal Protection Insurance in Geneva. She holds a Swiss Federal Diploma as Business Economist and an Executive MBA from the European University in Geneva and is an Associate of the Chartered Insurance Institute (ACII).
